CHART 1 OVERALL SYNTHETIC CURVE
(manufacturing industry, building industry, business-related services and trade)

Source: NBB.

Business confidence remains virtually stable in November

- The indicator has picked up a little in the construction sector and has contracted slightly in business-related services. It remains virtually unchanged in the manufacturing industry and trade.

The building industry is the only sector where business confidence has improved in November. All components making up the indicator have contributed to the rise, with the exception of the one concerning trends in equipment used.

Conversely, confidence has dipped in the business-related services sector. Company bosses are taking a more negative view of their current level of business activity. On the other hand, they appear more optimistic about future prospects for their own activity, while continuing to have reservations about forecasts for general market demand.

In the manufacturing industry, all the indicator's components have remained highly stable.

Lastly, in the trade sector, demand forecasts have contracted sharply, while those for orders placed with suppliers have improved nicely.

The overall smoothed synthetic curve, which reflects the underlying cyclical trend, is continuing the downtrend that began last month.

CHART 7 CONSUMER CONFIDENCE INDICATOR

Consumer confidence down again in November

- The consumer confidence indicator has dropped back for the second month running, under the impact of deteriorating expectations about the general economic situation and unemployment in Belgium.

Just as in October, consumers appear to be less optimistic about the general economic outlook. In addition, and for the first time in six months, they say they have less confidence in anticipated labour market developments.

On a more personal front, expectations regarding their financial situation and their ability to save remain virtually unchanged.

N.B.: Due to a methodological break in the labor force survey conducted among Belgian households (LFS) from the first quarter of 2017, Eurostat can no longer provide monthly data of the harmonized unemployment rate. Pending a solution, the quarterly averages replace these monthly data.

¹ Annual or quarterly data: average of end-of-month data; monthly data: end-of-month data.

² The suppression of the unemployment control at the end of 2005 makes difficult the comparison of the series before and after 2006.

The remaining 92 % of the value of the euro banknotes in circulation are allocated to the NCBs on a monthly basis too, whereby each NCB shows in its balance sheet a share of the euro banknotes issued corresponding to its paid-up share in the ECB's capital (Capital Share Mechanism or CSM).³ The difference between the value of the euro banknotes allocated to the NCB according to the aforementioned accounting regime, and the value of euro banknotes put into circulation, is also disclosed as an "Intra-Eurosystem claim/liability related to banknote issue".³ From 2001 onwards: Split of the old serie "Other claims" into two series "Other liabilities" and "Other liabilities to euro area credit institutions, denominated in euro".

N.B.: From January 2002 onwards, the Belgian contribution to the monetary aggregates of the eurozone excludes currency in circulation.

From June 2010, the Repurchase agreements, and consequently M3, exclude the Repurchase agreements with Central counterparties (CCPs). Hence, reclassifications that have an impact on the list of Central counterparties (CCPs), might cause breaks in the time series.

N.B.: According to a survey conducted among credit institutions, insurance companies and mortgage companies.

The data indicate a trend and do not reflect all applications for mortgage credit or the outstanding amount of these loans. From 1995 onwards the concept of "mortgage credit" refers to the Law of 4th August 1992 concerning mortgage credit, and excludes all mortgage credit contracted for commercial purposes.
